

Sticky Learning

I can have my own creative response.

I can draw from still imagery.

I can draw from life.

I can combine materials and medium in my art.

New Knowledge

To explore the work of artists who are inspired by food.

To begin to use line, shape and colour to capture the texture and form of food.

To make my sculpture using "design through making".

To begin to respond to my work and also to the work of my peers.
